In view of the fact that Mr. M. Basava Dya has complained that he has not been receiving the Gazette Gazette an enquiry seems to be necessary. Moreover the compiler may therefore be asked to report whether copies were supplied in the past to non-official members as directed in the G.O. d 2.6.1914 and whether steps have been taken to supply copies to those newly appointed this year. Submitted.

From the Supot's letter it seems that the G.O. ²d 2.6.14 has been mis understood. This G.O. seems to have been passed on a list of members then holding office. At any rate the Supot seems to have understood it in that light.

Flag E

The G.O. itself is clear and empowers the Comptroller to supply a member only during the period he holds the membership. Can the strength of this view orders were not passed in 1915. vide page 2 of En file no 115-465. The result has been that some of the ~~members~~ gentlemen who have now ceased to be members but were in the list sent with the G.O. referred to above are still being supplied and those who were ^{nominated} ~~appointed~~
